CHAPTER ONE

“Logging On”

This is the Home page of the “NEW” ArbiterSports.com page formerly known as:
www.thearbiter.net

Logging in to the program is simple:

1. Type your e-mail address and password here in the top right hand corner:
2. Click on the GO button
3. Once logged into the site, you can access your availability and begin to manage your schedule by blocking out dates you are unavailable to work games.

CHAPTER TWO

“THEM DAMN TABS”

Here are your new “TABS”

CLICK HERE FOR YOUR ASSIGNMENTS

CLICK HERE TO
BLOCK OUT DATES

SIGN OFF

Once you understand these “NEW” Tabs, using ArbiterSports.com will be as simple as thearbiter.net was.

If you are still having trouble, please go back and review Chapter One before moving on.

CHAPTER THREE

“BLOCKS”

Once you have successfully clicked on the BLOCKS TAB, you should see a page similar to this. It is here where you can block out dates or part of days you are unavailable or unblock dates that become available to referee basketball.

The screenshot shows the 'BLOCKS' interface. On the left, the 'Action' menu is highlighted, showing options: View Schedule (selected), Block All Day, Block Part Day, and Clear Blocks. The 'Time Range' section is set to 'From 8:00 AM' and 'To 5:00 PM'. The 'Date Range' section has empty fields and an 'Apply' button. The calendar grid for October 2009 is displayed, with dates 1-31. A blue arrow points to the 'Time Range' section, a green arrow points to the 'Action' menu, and a black arrow points to the date 31 in the calendar grid.

To set your schedule:

1. Click on an ACTION (Block all day, part day, clear blocks)
2. Click on the dates you wish to perform that ACTION on.

For example, to block out all day on October 31, click on BLOCK ALL DAY and then 31. The date, OCT 31 will turn RED to indicate you cannot work at all that date.

3. To block out PART of a day, Click on the ACTION – BLOCK PART DAY and specify a Time Range. This is helpful if you are available to work in the Morning, but not evening.
4. Once you are done, click on the EXIT button that says, EXIT.

Actually, this page works the same as the old program, with the old tabs and the old exit buttons.

CHAPTER FOUR

“SCHEDULE”

This part of the program also is EXACTLY THE SAME as the ancient arbiter.net program from 2008, except it can be found under a “NEW” TAB. If you are having trouble with the “NEW” tabs, please revisit Chapter Two, “Them Damn Tabs” to refresh yourself.

Below you will find an example of an assignment schedule. You will notice that the schedule is very comprehensive. It includes, but is not limited to: Game, Date & Time, Level of Contest, Site. Please keep in mind that it did not get this information by itself. Mr. Obernesser spends many hours entering this data into the program so that it is nice, neat and manageable for your membership.*

Schedule

Select 'Accept' or 'Decline' for specific assignments. Click 'Submit' when finished, or click 'Exit' to return to the previous page.
